

Spring's Warm Sunshine Lures and Balmy Breezes Call the Youngest Generation Outdoors

SPRING VISITORS AT RITTENHOUSE SQUARE. At the left is Marcia Meeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meeker. At the right is Pem Martin, daughter of Lieutenant G. W. Martin and Mrs. Martin.

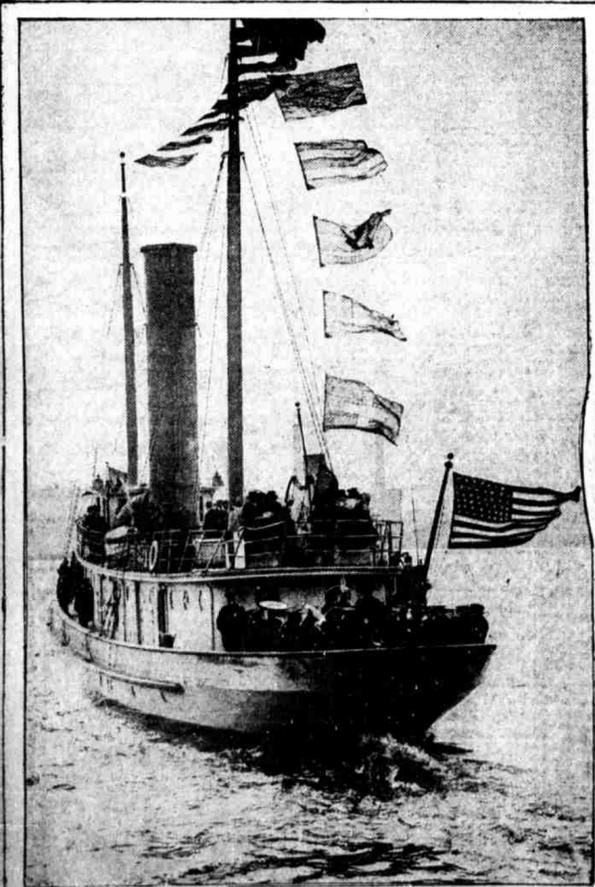

DOUBTFUL about this park photography. Edmond Bamberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bamberger.

THIS IS "GENERAL" George Gordon Meade Easby, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Easby and great-grandson of General Meade.

THE YOUNG MAN of judicial mien is Eugene Newbold, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Newbold.

VERA STORY is the little daughter of the late Julian Story and Mrs. Story.

THE POLICE BOAT Ashbridge all dressed-up, and the police band in the stern, bound down the river with mothers, "dads," sweethearts and wives to welcome home the doughboys on the Haverford.

SPRINGTIME TURNS the young angler's fancy to rod and line, and he is stirred to trudge forth to the nearest stream to ply his art.

THE EXPERT ANGLER arranging a tempting morsel in the depths of Cobb's Creek Park that will lure the wildest perch that swims the creek to his piscatorial doom.